As a fashion designer, Miami native

Loretta Forer developed designs for Saks Private Label and Giamo. As an interior designer, the former professional dancer styled homes of the rich and famous including Sophia Loren's and Gianni Versace's.

The latest group to reap the benefits of Forer's chic talent: cats and dogs! Hot Cool Dog Cat is a high end collection that incorporates Forer's fashion sense (from jeweled collars and leashes to chic T-shirts and leg warmers) with her eye for home décor (like lavish futons, plush pillows and hangers). To pamper your pet, browse Forer's complete collection at www.hotcooldogcat.com. —Lauren Ressler
